

Jack crevalles have olive green backs and yellow bellies. They are fast swimmers, traveling in large schools. Jacks live in shallow estuaries when young. They hide under jellyfish, seaweed and in seagrass for protection. Adults are found in both the ocean and estuaries. They are a fun fish to catch. Adults weigh up to forty pounds!